

Rondo Retreat is a Christian Centre set in the Kakamega rainforest in Kenya that offers Boarding and Catering services for visitors. Rondo Retreat provides lodging and hospitality related services for its wide range of clientele in the Western part of Kenya and especially Kakamega.

Rondo Retreat Center in the Kakamega Rain Forest is a first class homestead consisting of the main house of clapboard and colonial era corrugated iron, and five cottages in the same old style, whose proximity to the forest makes for delightful accommodation.
www.crocodileracers.com

Rondo Retreat Center has fifteen en-suite double rooms, plus three more double rooms that share the large original bathroom in the main house. No two rooms are the same. The bedrooms, sitting rooms and dining room have all been decorated and furnished with flair using things "old and new" - antique prints and photographs, local paintings, crafts and fabrics.

Rondo Retreat Center serves hearty English breakfasts, midday lunches, and candlelit dinners in a brightly cozy dining room, in front of a crackling fire if the air is cool. Tea can be taken in the sitting room, on the main verandah or in your cottage or room.
www.crocodileracers.com

Rondo Retreat Center belongs to the Trinity Fellowship, a Christian society committed to communication and conservation. Communicating the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ to all people everywhere; and conserving the earth and its resources to meet needs in the world. It is not a hotel, and is not licensed to serve alcohol.

Rondo Retreat Centre Attraction

Rondo Retreat Center attractions include; Kakamega Bullfighting Matches, a traditional Bullfighting activity that is practiced among the Luhya community and provides a good choice for a cultural Safari. The crying stone, a Rock that resembles a human head that has water oozing from its 'head'.

Other attractions include Kakamega Rain forest which is in its own class in Kenya. This forest has over 300 species of birds and Butterflies, Primates, Snakes, Trees and small game. On your vacation to Kakamega, Rondo Retreat Centre should be your ultimate choice!

Today this peaceful place has been "opened to the public" and is run by the Reverend and Mrs. Godfrey and Elisabeth Dawkins. They invite you to take time from the rush of your busy life to come and contemplate – nature, yourself, the world, the work of God.

Funds and personnel permitting, Rondo related projects will include: Community Outreach, Environmental Education, Eco-Tourism, and Regenerative Agro Forestry.

Accommodations at Rondo Retreat - Kakamega Rain Forest

Rondo homestead consists of the main house of clapboard and colonial era corrugated iron, and five cottages in the same old style, whose proximity to the forest makes for delightful accommodation. There are fifteen en-suite double rooms, plus three more double rooms that share the large original bathroom in the main house. No two rooms are the same.

The bedrooms, sitting rooms and dining room have all been decorated and furnished with flair using things "old and new" antique prints and photographs, and local paintings, crafts and fabrics.

The chapel perched on the edge of the garden above a dramatic drop into the forest, and set apart from the other houses for solitude, is ideal for individual prayer and congregational services, meetings, seminars and small conferences.