

Lake Baringo Club Hotel is a small lodge at the borders of Lake Baringo, one of the two fresh water lakes in Kenya's Rift Valley and is the gem for birders and bird photographers. Lake Baringo Club Hotel is set amidst lush green lawns and bougainvillea and is intimate and cozy.

Birding here is a real pleasure as the birds are very colorful and not at all shy - some even come and feed from your hands.

Lake Baringo Club is set in 10 hectares of beautiful grounds, which sweep down to the lakes edge. At night, the hippos come to graze here.

A jetty extends out into the lake, and boat trips can be taken. A long low single story building houses the central lounge, bar and dining room - as simply be pleasantly presented. There is a pretty pool in the gardens with shaded sunbathing areas. Beyond the central buildings, the rooms stretch out in a long line of single storey chalets.

Lake Baringo Club Hotel lies in the solitude of the semi-desert, a haven of peace and beauty in harsh, rugged but majestic surroundings. Its beauty derives as much from an overwhelming sense of repose with nature as its scenic distinction. Until a few years ago, Baringo was considered well off the beaten track.

Lake Baringo Club is a neat, compact hotel on the Lake Shore, Ideal for business with a fully equipped conference room. Services include laundry/dry cleaning, gift shop, telephone, fax and email.

Lake Baringo Club offers luxurious Family Suites, Pool Wing rooms and Lake Wing rooms. Children love Lake Baringo for its games room, TV/Video and a fully equipped playground. The Club also provides a special dinner menu for kids.

From Lake Baringo Country Club you can easily go birding to Lake Bogoria with its thousands of flamingos and beautiful hot springs, do walks around the cliffs, go for a boat ride on Lake Baringo, bird in the garden or just take a break from it all. Lake Baringo is a 5.5 hours drive from Nairobi but it is best to break the journey with stops in Naivasha or Nakuru.
