

Kembu Cottages & Campsite Hotel is owned by the Nightingales family and is located in Kembu Farm overlooking the Great Rift Valley - an ideal weekend get-away for anyone looking for fresh air, beautiful countryside and very comfortable, modern accommodation. The peaceful setting of Kembu Cottages & Campsite Hotel is found just outside Nakuru.

This lovely hotel is very easy to feel at home with guests being able to self cater or dine at the wooden bar who offer a range of snacks and cooked meals. There is a well equipped campsite for individuals or larger parties of guests. Kembu Farm is located 40 kilometers West of Lake Nakuru in the Rift Valley of southwest Kenya. www.crocodileracers.com

The cottages and campsite are located on a large 900 acre farm where one can enjoy the freedom to go on long walks, relax or pursue any one of the many activities offered by Kembu. This wonderful high altitude climate means there is no malaria. Crisp clean air and ample space makes for an ideal family sojourn where children can help feed horses, calves and chickens and burn up their excess energy.

Children absolutely love Kembu Cottages & Campsite Hotel! For parents Kembu Farm is a super place to just let the children run around. There's so much space, and Zoe and Andrew Nightingale, who own and manage the farm are more than happy to let your children feed the cows, play in the hay bales and make friends with their numerous dogs who love to be petted at every opportunity.

For couples and people wanting a quiet place to stay, Kembu offers privacy and comfort as a quiet retreat from bustling city life.

Kembu Farm Accommodation

Kembu Cottages & Campsite Hotel currently has 7 beautifully furnished cottages each having a private garden, comfortable, modern interiors and a well-equipped kitchen. A tree-house is nearby which is nicely done, and is a slightly cheaper option, as it shares showers and toilet facilities with the campsite.

The Cottages are spacious with most being painted various tones of sunshine yellow. The cottages range from the cozy one bed roomed Tree house to the spacious Kenana Cottage which could sleep quite a number of people.
