

Allia Bay Guesthouse Turkana

Location: Marsabit District, Eastern Province. The guesthouse is on the shores of Lake Turkana, 800km north of Nairobi

Accommodation: 3 single bedrooms

Bathroom: There is one bathroom

Sitting room: There is a furnished sitting room

Dining area: There is a furnished dining area.

Kitchen: The kitchen is equipped with a gas stove, kitchen utensils, cutlery, crockery and glasses.

Provided: Caretaker, electricity and mosquito nets.

What to take with you: All supplies; especially fuel (the last fuel stations are in Marsabit or Maralal depending on the route taken) food and water.

Park highlights: Known as the 'the cradle of mankind', Sibiloi National Park was created to protect the sites of its many remarkable hominid fossil finds. The Koobi Fora Museum displays a selection of fossils and there is also a petrified forest. The lake hosts the world's largest Nile crocodile population, 60 recorded species of fish and more than 350 recorded species of birds.

Activities: Museum, walking, boat trips and fishing.