

Champali Camp Lamu

Situated on a tranquil mangrove creek, it is a beautiful, eco-friendly Bush home on Kiwaiyu Island, in the heart of the Kiunga Marine National Reserve in northern Kenya. The camp is built from mangrove poles and palm-thatch using local skills.

Champali camp is ideally situated to explore the mangrove creeks, the many sandy beaches and the greater Marine Reserve beyond

Accommodation & Room Types

The beautifully-appointed rooms and deluxe safari tents will be a welcome place to stay in Nairobi before and after your safari. Consists of one spacious mess-banda and three large bedroom bandas all nestled under acacia trees and can comfortably sleep 6 adults and 4 children. www.crocodileracers.com

Dining and staff

The camp is self-catering, but well staffed with a good local cook who will attend to your needs.

Activities

- Reading in the shade of the trees
- Exploring the mangrove creeks
- Snorkelling
- Windsurfing
- Kite-surfing
- Sailing
- Deep sea fishing

- Visiting the friendly village of Kiwayu
- Long walks