

Mara West Economy Bandas is a tented camp situated on the Olololo Escarpment. The camp offers stunning views over the Maasai Mara National Park in budget accommodation for groups and families.

Accommodation

There are 28 Economy Banda's in Mara West each one is very simply, but tastefully furnished giving the client all the necessary features required. All the tents have a double or twin beds with electricity; they all share a bathroom and each bathroom is spacious with 2 showers and 2 loos in each of them. There is also a large dining area, sitting area, a campfire and a great verandah where these people can socialise if required. www.crocodileracers.com

Activities

A Cultural tour - Visiting ongoing development projects established by Mara West, including:

A Masai Boma (homestead). Masai schools. Masai clinics and surgery. Masai Bead craft projects.

Day trip to Rusinga Island, Lake Victoria.

Game drives in the day and at night.

Hot air balloon safaris.

Nature walks.

Plus cultural talks and Masai dances.

Scenic flights in a Cessna.

Spa.

Sundowners, picnics and bush meals.