

Bateleaur Camp is set among the forests just below the spot where a famous scene from Out of Africa was filmed. Nine spacious tents with wooden floors and private verandahs grace this exclusive luxury camp.

Inside each tent, you will find every possible comfort, including an unexpectedly expansive en-suite bathroom. There is also a writing desk, subtle lighting and ceiling fans in each tent. The ultimate indulgence - a personal butler service - ensures you are pampered in style.

Bateleaur Camp at Kichwa Tembo is a luxurious tented safari accommodation situated below the location where Out of Africa's famous final scene was filmed; this romantic and totally private camp reflects the ambience of Kenyan safaris of the 20s and 30s. www.rocodileracers.com

Bateleaur Camp is nestled in a lush riverine forest; the tented suites epitomize classic elegance with polished wooden floors and en suite bathrooms with glass-walled showers, twin hand-basins and a separate flush toilet.

Each tent has a private deck overlooking the vast game-filled plains of the Masai Mara, and a personal butler will ensure your every need is catered for. Beautiful antiques adorn the comfortable sitting area and indoor/outdoor dining area, transporting you to the heyday of classic safaris. The camp also features a deep lap pool and a small African gift shop.

Your private butler will serve you delicious Pan-African cuisine in the dining area, on the veranda or in a romantic setting under the stars. Bush breakfasts and candlelit dinners offer an unforgettable experience of the African bush.
