

Kijiji Cottages overlook the beautiful tropical paradise of Diani Beach, 25km south of Mombasa town. Diani is one of Kenya's finest beach resort areas with a sun soaked, palm-fringed, white sandy beach running for miles alongside the coral reef and clear blue sea, with areas perfect for swimming, dhow sailing, scuba diving and snorkelling. 'Kijiji' in the local Kiswahili language means 'small village' and Kijiji Cottages are seven privately owned two or three bedroomed cottages snuggled together right next to the beach. Presently three of the cottages are available for holiday lets when not being used by their owners.

Kijiji Cottages share the compound with Warandale Cottages, which also has cottages to let. This makes the compound even more like a cosy African village. Whichever cottage you choose you will feel immediately at home next to the sea and beach. Most, but not all, of the cottages have a sea view.
