

Papatuo Villas is situated in Diani Beach, approximately 35 Km south of Mombasa, an entertainment location that faces the Indian Ocean. Clients are set up in comfortable African style architectural features with elegantly furnished bedrooms, inside bathrooms and large verandas. The villas are totally independent and furnished with all the comforts of life. The whole tourist complex offers ample meeting areas. Every evening there is a shuttle bus that will take you to the nearby casinos.

Relax and rejuvenate on your beach holiday, only a few minutes from the beautiful White sandy shores of the Indian Ocean and the Tiwi river mouth. Papatuo's stylishly decorated cottages are set in tranquil and lush tropical grounds. There is a swimming pool, bar and an in-house restaurant in case you do not wish to venture out.

Diani beach sits on a coastline that is unspoiled, noted for its white coral sand. The ocean has intense colors of blue turquoise and emerald green. There is a great opportunity to explore the beautiful mangrove forest as well as many bird species spotted around.

Accommodation & Room Types

Papatuo has eight thatched roof villas set in lush tropical gardens. Each villa is stylishly furnished with Swahili furniture and furnishings. All bedrooms have air conditioning. There is a common swimming pool with a bar area to relax and lounge in.

Two villas have one bedroom, bath and a Lamu sofa bed to be able to accommodate a third guest while six villas have two bedrooms with private bathroom. Every villa faces a large veranda furnished with large Kikoi cushions.

All the villas are furnished with air conditioning, large blade fans, TV, D.V.D player and mosquito nets.

Dining

Papatuo Villas has a bar and restaurant managed by professional local staff. The kitchen is entrusted with expert cooks specializing in local and international cuisine. Inside the structure there is a small shop where you can purchase interesting local products.www.crocodileracers.com
