

The Izaak Walton Inn is located along the Embu- Meru highway in Embu town. It has beautiful gardens and accommodation and is popular for corporate workshops. It is set in a unique relaxation point on the slopes of Mt. Kenya with high probability of interacting with monkeys from the nearby Njukiri Forest. The hotel serves as a perfect accommodation spot for travellers and tourists exploring various geographical and wildlife attractions in Kenya's eastern frontier.

Accommodation & Room Types

Relax and settle in the spacious fuensuite each offering a haven of personal space designed for natural living, a comfortable bed, a soft duvet, harmonious colours, tasteful furnishing and decoration.

The Standard rooms either have a king size bed or twin beds and include; satellite T.V, hot shower, working table and air conditioning. The Superior Suites offer luxury with 12 of the superior rooms having 1 king size bed with the other 12 chalets have twin beds. They boast of tastefully decorated seating area with flat screen T.V sets and a working space. www.crocodilera.com

The event suites and boardrooms have been designed to meet the client's expectations and conference requirements. The conference halls are fitted with flip charts, superior sound system, large white screens, T.V sets and video units. A separate business centre within the hotel offers internet, printing, photocopying and other related services.

Features

- Adequate security
- Bird watching
- Conference facilities
- Eco-friendly
- Game drives
- Resident DJs
- Restaurants & bars