

Kicheche Laikipia Camp is a small luxurious Tented Camp set on the equator overlooking a waterhole in the centre of the 110,000-Acre Ol Pejeta Conservancy, which lies on the Laikipia Plains, 217 Kilometers from Nairobi and 14 Kilometers from Nanyuki Town. Transfers by road from Nairobi take approximately 3.5 hours. Kicheche Laikipia Camp is a small luxurious tented camp, which stands on the Laikipia Ol Pejeta Conservancy. The camp is surrounded by indigenous forest and overlooks a waterhole.

Kicheche Laikipia Camp has six custom-built luxury tents, there is also a central dining tent and safari lounge. Its twelve guests are hosted by the inimitable Andy and Sonja Webb. Kicheche Laikipia Camp tents are custom designed and are fully insect-proof with en-suite bathrooms equipped with a dresser, flushing toilet and hot showers. There are comfortable chairs on each verandah overlooking the waterhole. One tent can be converted into a triple on request. There is a spacious well furnished lounge and dining tent, although guests prefer to eat alfresco if weather permits.

Kicheche Laikipia Camp Ol Pejeta Conservancy Information

Kicheche Laikipia Camp in The Ol Pejeta Conservancy is 110,000 acres of wilderness offers an incredibly uncrowded environment to enjoy quality game viewing. The Conservancy is home to Kenya's largest population of Black Rhino, large numbers of elephant, cheetah, lion, leopard and plentiful plains game. There are also a number of rarer Northern species such as Grevys Zebra, Jacksons Hartebeest and Beisa Oryx. The Conservancy lies on the Equator 30 minutes drive from Nanyuki airstrip and affords wonderful views of Mt Kenya.