

Samburu Intrepids is situated on the banks of the Uaso Nyiro River in the arid heart of Samburu game reserve, the camp looks out over riverbanks where the herds of elephant, buffalo and Zebra come daily to drink together with the rarer northern species of reticulated giraffe, Beisa Oryx and long-necked gerenuk. The Camp is located 345 kilometers north of Nairobi, 50 minutes flight to the Samburu airstrip and 20 minutes drive to the lodge. Samburu Intrepids offers a stunning combination of personal luxury, informative guiding and thrilling wildlife encounters in one of the world's last great wilderness.
