

Ndolwa House Private Homestay is a small private homestay bordering Tsavo West National Park catering for the discerning client wishing to experience an unspoilt wilderness in the African bush. Ndolwa House is a small private homestead bordering the south eastern boundary of Tsavo West National Park south of the Ngulia Mountain and Tsavo River.

It is based on Ndolwa Wildlife Sanctuary and lies 7 km from Maktau town. Ndolwa House Private Homestay is based on a private community owned conservation area and offers great accessibility to both the southern and northern regions of Tsavo National Park for an exciting mix of wildlife viewing opportunities and wonderfully diverse and breathtaking scenery.

Set on Ndolwa Hill the lodge overlooks a vast panoramic expanse unlike any other in Tsavo West, including spectacular views of Mt Kilimanjaro, the Chyulu Hills, Tsavo West National Park, the Yatta Plateau and the Taita Hills. www.crocodileracers.com

Ndolwa House Private Homestay Owners / Host

Marcus Russell, owner and host of Ndolwa House Private Homestay, is a professional guide and a seasoned bushman. A second generation Kenyan, he has spent most of his life in Kenya's wilderness areas, building and managing tourist lodges and camps; setting up wildlife conservation projects and working with the Kenya Wildlife Service on anti-poaching and wildlife management activities.

Ndolwa House Private Homestay has four private en-suite cottages (two with double beds, one with twin beds and one family room with one double bed and two single beds) and two tents measuring 44 square meters each with en suite bathrooms (one with a double bed and the other with two single beds); each cottage and tent has a private verandah.

There are also two guide rooms to accommodate guides (one with a double bed and the other with two single beds) attached to the central mess/dining area. On request extra beds can be placed in the rooms to accommodate more people or young children.

Each Ndolwa House Private Homestay cottage has its own unique style with custom made beds, personal African collections and bead work decoration. The cottages, tents and the mess/dining area overlook spectacular panoramic views of Mt Kilimanjaro, the Chyulu Hills, Tsavo West National Park, Ngulia Hill, the Yatta Plateau, and the Taita Hills.
