

Ngulia Safari Camp is set against the backdrop of the rugged but scenic Ngulia Hills about 40 kilometres from Mtito Andei and 50 kilometres from the Tsavo River gates in Tsavo West National Park. The Camp has 6 self catering bandas, six standard rooms and a camp-site.

The nights have their own unique ambience, a potpourri of hundreds of different animal, birds and insect noises. The camp is designed to blend with the surrounding vegetation and landscape. From a distance, one may be forgiven for mistaking it for one of Ngulia Hills rock outcrops. www.crocodileracers.com

The bandas are tastefully furnished and have a well equipped kitchenette and bathroom suite. There is a Rock Room which is suitable for Honeymooners. Ngulia Safari Camp has a modern gourmet restaurant with an elaborate menu specifically designed for those who love the outdoors.

It also prides a well stocked 'tree bar', another extra-ordinary experience under wide starry tropical skies and in the warmth of a campfire. The camp is lit by a super-silent generator that comforts to stringent international wildlife and environmental requirements.

Ngulia Safari Camp offering an idyllic view across the pristine Tsavo West National Park which teams with wildlife - the lion, buffalo, elephant, cheetah, leopard, hippo, rhino and thousands of Savannah wildlife. These can be viewed all year round from the verandas of the camp's bandas as they frequent the water pond just a few meters below the camp.

In addition to the game drives with experienced guides the camp offers nature walks and rock climbing up the Ngulia Hills, game viewing, guided walks, rock climbing, bird watching.

Ngulia safari camp is a budget traveler's accommodation in Tsavo West National Park. Here you get to bring your own personal supplies of food and drinking water.

Activities from Ngulia safari camp include morning and afternoon game drives, visits to Mzima

Springs, the Rhino Sanctuary and the shetani Lava flows. In the evening you can seat outside your banda as you watch the sun go down on the beautiful horizon of Tsavo west with views of Kilimanjaro on a fair skied day.